

TOP SPORTS, BREEDING AND BUSINESS ALL COME TOGETHER IN ZANGERSHEIDE

For 24 years already the FEI/WBFSH World Breeding Jumping Championships for Young Horses has been a highlight on the calendar of many horse enthusiasts! This year promises to be even more festive because from the 18th through to the 22nd of September 2019 Domain Zangersheide is hosting the 25th edition of the World Championship for 5-, 6- and 7-year-old showjumpers. Similar to the other editions, we are expecting the best young horses of the world. But also the best of our Belgian riders are going to compete for the prestigious title of Belgian Champion from the 18th to the 21st of September. And in case this isn't enough, visitors have the options to enjoy the FEI Sires of the World, an exclusive competition between stud stallions at 1.50m level, which can be combined with taking a peek at the young top stallions of the future during the indoor Studbook Zangersheide Stallion Inspection. Would you also like to take part in this extraordinary event? Then make sure to drop by at the Quality Auction in the evening where you have the opportunity to bid on a unique selection of foals of the highest quality.
